

Beth Am Anti-Human Trafficking Initiative—Film and Panel Discussion
Saturday, December 7, 2:45 to 5 p.m., Congregation Beth Am Sanctuary

Please join us to learn about the scourge of human trafficking, both globally and locally, and ways we might work together to combat it.

WATCH Not My Life — A compelling film that illustrates the brutality of modern human slavery, with a message of hope that victims can be set free and go on to live happy and productive lives.

HEAR from a panel of experts representing local anti-trafficking coalitions, law enforcement, shelter and social services for trafficking survivors:

- Nancy Goldberg, Co-founder, Jewish Coalition to End Human Trafficking (JCEHT)
- Jaida Im, Founder and Executive Director, Freedom House
- Danielle Parish, Member, Bay Area Anti-Trafficking Coalition (BAATC)
- Julianne Sylva, Assistant District Attorney, Santa Clara County

Enjoy refreshments between 2:45 and 3 p.m. The program will start promptly at 3 p.m.

Co-sponsors: Beth Am Women (BAW), Jewish Coalition to End Human Trafficking (JCEHT) and Bay Area Anti-Trafficking Coalition (BAATC)
