

THE BIOGRAPHY OF DEPUTY CONSUL GENERAL OF ISRAEL RAVIT BAER

Ravit Baer assumed the role of Deputy Consul General in August, 2015. In her position Ravit heads the Political and Public Diplomacy departments of the Consulate.

Prior to joining the Consulate, Ravit served for five years at the Department for Multilateral European Organization at the Europe Division. In that position, she was responsible for coordinating Israel's cooperation with the European Union, NATO, OSCE, UFM.

Ravit is a career diplomat at the Israeli Foreign Service since 2004. She served as the Deputy Head of Mission to the Israeli Embassy in the Ivory Coast (2005-2007) and to Cyprus (2007-2010). Prior to joining the Israel Ministry of Foreign Affairs, she served as a legal advisor at the Prime Minister's Office (2003-2004).

Ravit Baer holds an L.L.B (2001) and an L.L.M specializing in constitutional and administrative law (2003), both from the Hebrew University. She is a certified lawyer and member of the Israeli Bar Association.

Ravit Baer was born in Jerusalem, Israel. She is married and has three children.