

Gia Daniller-Katz

Founder and President of Daniller Consulting Public Affairs

Gia Daniller-Katz is a seasoned public affairs, community engagement and government relations professional – and a passionate advocate dedicated to empowering people, organizations, and communities to reach their full potential. For more than two decades, Gia has used her skills and talents to strengthen Bay Area Jewish community institutions and to educate community members and public officials on a wide range of critical issues. In both her professional and personal life, she has worked to advance such causes as combating hunger and poverty, affordable housing, assistance for low-income families, seniors, holocaust survivors and immigrants, gun control, sustainability issues, early childhood education, workforce development, smart cities, a strong U.S.-Israel relationship and so much more.

As the founder and president of Daniller Consulting Public Affairs, Ms. Daniller's clients have included Fortune 500 Companies, numerous state and local public agencies, and many prominent non-profit organizations for whom she has secured millions of dollars in government funding and countless legislative and regulatory successes. Prior to forming Daniller Consulting, Gia served as the Director of Government Relations & Legislative Affairs for the San Francisco Bay Area Jewish Community Relations Council (JCRC) where she worked closely with a wide range of community/civic leaders and public officials throughout California. Her professional experience includes serving as the Bay Area Representative for U.S. Senator Barbara Boxer, as a legislative aide to U.S. Senator Christopher Dodd, a research and communications assistant at the Organization of Economic Cooperation and Development (OECD) in Paris, France and in the political departments of the Clinton White House and the American Israel Public Affairs Committee. Additionally, she has worked on a number of successful political campaigns in California and has been actively involved with numerous local, state and national political and community-based organizations.

Ms. Daniller's volunteer leadership includes serving as a long-time board member of the San Francisco Planning and Urban Research Association (SPUR), as the President of the Raoul Wallenberg Jewish Democratic Club, Vice-Chair of the Bond Oversight Committee for the SF Community College District, a board member of City Car Share, Treasurer of the SF Housing Action Coalition, and on the San Francisco-Paris Sister City Board of Directors. An enthusiastic internationalist, Gia speaks French and Spanish and is proud to be a first-generation American.

Ms. Daniller-Katz holds a Bachelor of Science in Economics from the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania and lives in San Francisco with her husband and almost 8 year-old son.
