

The San Francisco Collaborative Against Human Trafficking presents a conference on

Exploring the Hidden Epidemic of Labor Trafficking

According to the California Department of Justice, California is one of the top four destinations in the country for human trafficking. Survivors of labor trafficking could be

- Domestic servants
- Immigrant farmworkers
- Massage parlor workers
- Nail stylists
- Nannies
- Dishwashers.

Join the San Francisco Collaborative Against Human Trafficking, in partnership with government agencies, service providers, community partners and survivor advocates, to combat labor trafficking in the San Francisco Bay Area.

Wednesday, December 3rd

9 am – 5 pm (Lunch included)

Milton Marks Conference Center, California State Building
455 Golden Gate Avenue (at Polk Street)
San Francisco, CA

Register at: <https://sfcaht-labor-trafficking-conference.eventbrite.com>

Afternoon workshops include:

- 1) Local Responses
- 2) Vulnerable Industries and Populations
- 3) Protection and Assistance to Labor Trafficking Victims
- 4) Prevention of Labor Trafficking
- 5) Anatomy of a Case

Special Early Bird Rate available until November 26:

- Non-Profit/Student/Friends: $65
- Government: $100
- Corporate: $200

Registration after November 26:

- Non-Profit/Student/Friends: $75
- Government: $125
- Corporate: $250

**3 CEU Credits available for an additional $15. MCLE Credits available through Santa Clara University. ****

